

Theatre History II

Course Design

2000-2001

Course Information

Organization:	Eastern Arizona College
Division:	Fine Arts
Course Number:	THC201
Title:	Theatre History II
Credits:	3
Developed by:	Crae Wilson
Lecture/Lab Ratio:	Three (3) lecture hours
Transfer Status:	ASU-THE321, NAU-DEC(TH), UofA-TAR340B
Extended Registration
Class:	Yes
CIP Code:	50.0505
Assessment Mode:	Pre/Post test (20 questions, 20 points)
Awareness Course:	No
Intensive Writing
Course:	No
Prerequisites:	1. None
Educational Value:	A. To General Education Theatre has a unique responsibility by holding a mirror up to society letting it recognize the positives and negatives thrown into the cosmopolitan soup made up by the individuals that make up that society. B. To Major/Program Individuals in society are constantly searching for the ultimate truth to guide them in their life-long pursuits. The theatre major has a unique advantage in that theatre offers unique insights into the successes and failures of any given group of people. There is a distinct advantage for the student of theatre to take upon himself different characters that have dominated thinking since time began. A very revealing product comes from putting yourself into the shoes of a unique historical figure.
Description:	Continues the study of theatre from medieval time to modern. The integrated study of plays, theatre architecture, dramatic styles, and theories of significant periods.
Textbooks:	---. None.
Supplies:	None

Competencies and Performance Standards

1. Identify the names, dates, vocabulary and events studied in different periods of history.
Domain--Cognitive	Level--Knowledge	Importance--Important	Difficulty--High
Criteria--Performance will be satisfactory when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • learner identifies the names of important people in the theatre history and is familiar with what they accomplished • learner identifies important dates and events in theatre history • learner identifies the vocabulary of different periods of theatre history 	Conditions--Competence will be demonstrated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • in the learner's contribution to group discussion • in the learner's performance on quizzes and exams • in class presentations give by the learner 	Learning Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Identify the names of important people throughout the history of theatre, familiarizing yourself with what they accomplished. Identify important dates in the history of theatre. Identify important events that have taken place in the history of theatre.
2. Discuss the production techniques, playwrights, theatre construction, acting and audiences in different periods in history.
Domain--Cognitive	Level--Comprehension	Importance--Important	Difficulty--High
Criteria--Performance will be satisfactory when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • learner discusses the production techniques of plays throughout history • learner discusses the careers of prominent playwrights throughout history • learner discusses different techniques used in acting and theatre construction throughout history • learner discusses the different kinds of audiences that have developed throughout history 	Conditions--Competence will be demonstrated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • in the learner's contribution to group discussion • in the learner's performance on quizzes and exams • in class presentations given by the learner 	Learning Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Discuss the production techniques of plays throughout history. Discuss the careers of prominent playwrights throughout history. Discuss different techniques used in acting and theatre construction throughout history. Discuss the different kinds of audiences that have developed throughout history.
3. Critically review several films and live performances.
Domain--Cognitive	Level--Knowledge	Importance--Important	Difficulty--Medium
Criteria--Performance will be satisfactory when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • learner identifies the main components of the production • learner identifies the author's purpose and intended audience • learner analyzes the meaning of the production and whether it was effectively presented 	Conditions--Competence will be demonstrated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • in written evaluations of various productions • in the learner's contribution to group discussion • in the learner's performance on quizzes and exams 	Learning Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Identify the main components of the production. Identify the author's purpose and intended audience. Analyze the meaning of the production and whether it was effectively presented.

Types of Instruction

Classroom Presentation

Grading Policy

Evaluation Methods: 40% Quizzes
40% Exams
10% Attendance
10% Classroom discussion

Grading Scale:

Grade	Requirement
A	100-90%
B	89-80%
C	79-70%
D	69-60%
F	59% and below

Learning Plans

Learning Plan 1-- The History of Theatre

Overview: As each chapter is covered in class, students will be required to identify important people, events, and various aspects of the period of history being studied. This accumulated knowledge will lead to an understanding of the evolution of theatre and a subsequent understanding of the evolution of society.

Competency: 1. Identify the names, dates, vocabulary and events studied in different periods of history.

Competency: 2. Discuss the production techniques, playwrights, theatre construction, acting and audiences in different periods in history.

Learning Activities:

- _____ 1. Review and study the chapter before coming to class.
- _____ 2. Take notes and contribute to group discussion.
- _____ 3. Prepare for quizzes and exams by studying and by participating in group activities.

Performance Assessment Activities: _____ 1. Actively participate in class discussions and activities.
 _____ 2. Complete all quizzes and exams.

Learning Plan 2-- Production Analysis

Overview: Analyzing a theatrical production from a historical perspective will help the learner to recognize the influences of past eras in the history of theatre, as well as the history being made in modern times. A stronger connection will be made between the theatre and its reflection of the evolution of society.

Competency: 3. Critically review several films and live performances.

Learning Activities:

- _____ 1. Watch the film or play assigned by the instructor.
- _____ 2. Take notes regarding the main components of the production, as well as your thoughts and impressions.
- _____ 3. Research the different influences and trends in theatre history exhibited by the production.

Performance
Assessment Activities:

- _____ 1. Write an analysis of the production from a historical perspective.
- _____ 2. Participate in a group discussion of the production.