PROGRAM INFORMATION

Eastern Arizona College offers an Emergency Medical Technician education program for qualified candidates. Completion of the EMT 103 – Emergency Medical Technician course prepares the student to sit for the national examination for Emergency Medical Technicians. EMT 103 is offered each fall semester. Completion of additional courses in the program enables the student to petition for the certificate of proficiency in Emergency Medical Technician from the college but is not a requirement for the EMT certification. Other courses offered within the EMT program are listed below. The goal of the Eastern Arizona College Emergency Medical Technician Program is to prepare competent entry-level EMT's in the cognitive, psychomotor and affective learning domains.

Candidates interested in completing the Certificate of Proficiency in Emergency Medical Technician must complete the following courses in addition to completing EMT 103:

BIO 160 – Introduction to Human Anatomy and Physiology OR
BIO 201 and BIO 202 – Human Anatomy and Physiology I & II
EMT 121 – Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation
EMT 170 – Vehicular Extrication and Trauma Care
HCE 112 – Medical Terminology

All courses must be completed with a grade of “C” or better.

Entry into the EMT program requires formal admission before the candidate can be registered for courses. Please contact the EAC Administration Office at 928-468-8039 for more detailed procedures regarding admission.

GENERAL INFORMATION

We appreciate your interest in the EMT Program and hope the following information will help you determine whether you are currently qualified for admission to the program. If you feel you are qualified, an application is included in this packet. Complete the application and bring it with supporting documentation to the administration office. This packet is also available for download from our web page or you can obtain it via email from Michelle Goodman at michelle.goodman@eac.edu. Qualified applicants are admitted based on a first come first serve basis. Each EMT course is limited to 24 students.
